

Additional Scholarship Resources

1. Aliyah Representatives abroad- these people can help direct you towards scholarship opportunities in Israel and answer other questions about Israel, not only Aliyah.
2. Contact local Jewish Organizations. Even if your Federation is not listed on the list provided, its worthwhile to contact the Jewish Federation in your community.
3. Also, contact your synagogue or rabbi and ask if there are funds set aside for young adult travel to Israel.
4. Contact other Jewish and Israel-oriented organizations that you (or your parents) are associated with to find additional funding for your trip.
5. The Israel Scholarship Guide for USA Undergraduate and Graduate Age Students
6. Jeff Seidel's Scholarship to Israel - $500 scholarships towards airfare to come to study in Israel on affiliated programs for Birthright and Hillel alumni.
7. American Jewish League, Israel University Scholarship - Provides eligible students scholarships to attend Israeli Universities.
8. The Dorot Foundation - Travel grants to accredited Israeli colleges and universities.
9. Scholarships from Rotary International - The Rotarians offer scholarships up to $26,000 for Israeli university studies and Hebrew studies.
10. www.rilcf.org - Robert I. Lappin Charitable Foundation (for MA. Students)
29 Congress Street P.O. Box 98 Salem, MA 01970 phone 978-740-4428
fax 978-744-1411
11. http://israeloncampuscoalition.org/resources/travel_schol.htm - for information on scholarship resources in North America.
13. www.studyinIsrael.org - this link takes you to a multitude of other scholarship resources that are out there
14. The Amy Adine Schulman Scholarship Fund - The grant requires a commitment to educate others through lecture, program or other activities upon returning to your home or school community. You must be willing and able to do this so others will have the opportunity to learn about and to be inspired to do similar work. Please apply at <http://www.amyadinaschulmanfund.org/>
15. Helyn B. Reich Memorial Scholarship Fund -- Reich scholarships are awarded each year to a limited number of American students who choose to study at one of several designated Israeli universities. Preference is given to candidates who decide to spend the full year in Israel. For more information about the scholarship, please call the AZM Chicago office at 847-677-5949 or visit the web site at http://www.azm.org/hbr_about.shtml.
16. U.S Federal grants- <http://www.federalgrantswire.com/federal-grants-by-agency.html>
17. For Jewish British students- The UJIA. <http://www.ujia.org/>